Hindolveston Newsletter

Dear Parishioners

My name is David and i am currently researching the final resting place/ grave locations of all 133 aircrew who took part in the 617 Squadron ' Dams Raid ' in May 1943. My research has brought me to the village of Hindolveston where a member of the aircrew that took part, once lived. His name is Flg. Off. Harold Sydney Hobday, a Navigator aboard Lancaster AJ-N. Harold resided in the village until his death on 24th February 2000. I would be sincerely grateful if anyone had information regarding Harold Hobday's final resting place. Please find my contact details included in this letter, in the hope that Harold may be found. Email, dpendall@btinternet.com; Mobile Tel. No. 07512 569406. Thank you. "

Village Hall Car Park

Thank you to everyone who has pledged money to help with our efforts to raise enough to make the necessary repairs. We've been heartened by the response and by your lovely comments on the value of the hall to our community. We're making good progress but we're not there yet. We are a charitable trust maintaining the hall for the benefit of everyone who lives here. Whether you visit the hall for events or classes, use the car park for occasional parking when your own driveway is full, or just want to support us in keeping this facility in good repair for the benefit of the whole village, please consider supporting us financially if you haven't already done so. You can email me with your intention to donate at chair.hindolvestonvillagehall@gmail.com

Food Truck Fridays

We have a great selection of food outside the Village Hall Friday Bar in June. On June 5th IB The Chippy brings us Fish and Chips, on June 12th Moody Cow returns with Aberdeen Angus Steak, chargrilled Halloumi and steak burgers, on 19th June we have Fire & Fork Hog Roast plus entertainment from Holt Ridge Morris and Askers Pizza return on the 24th June followed by a pub quiz in the hall. Food service and the Friday Bar start at 6.30pm.

HINDOLVESTON CRAFTS IN ACTION

Crafts in Action Day
Sunday 2nd August 2026
Hindolveston Village Hall
10am – 4pm

We are looking forward to seeing you at our Active Craft Day on Sunday 2nd August when a variety of different crafts people will be there to show what they do, talk to you about it and hopefully you may be able to have a go. Some things will be for sale; this is a REAL Craft Fair the items have been made by the people selling them.

Entry is free and there will be the usual delicious refreshments on sale so you can make a real day out of it - chatting to all the different craft people and having your lunch or tea there or even both

Coming soon details of what we are planning to do to celebrate 30 years of Crafts in Action next year. The dates for our Christmas Craft Market are the evening of Saturday 5th December and the day of Sunday 6th December.

BRONZE ECO CHURCH AWARD

Becky Sheridan has been working hard towards St George's being the first Church in the area to gain this award.

Please help the final stage by completing a short questionnaire.
These are available in the Church porch, from Liz Walker or online at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/TDZ56N7>
